

King Wen Zoo 33940282 - Studio 5 (Fri 2pm)

DV 2 Sketch

Title: The Great Australian Outdoors

Subtitle: How Australians explore, play and connect with nature.

Goal: Combine multiple datasets relating to outdoor recreation, national parks, hiking, camping and community activities. Use multiple variables to tell a broader story about Australia's unique outdoor culture and lifestyle.

Target Audience: Australians who are interested in understanding how outdoor recreation, natural spaces and community activities shape Australia's outdoor lifestyle.

Story Sections:

① Introduction

- Introduce Australia as a country shaped by beaches, bushland, national parks and open spaces.
- "How do Australians explore, play, and connect with the outdoors?"

② How Australia Gets outdoors

- What outdoor activities do Australians participate in.
- Compare activities using AusPlay data.

③ Who Gets Outdoors?

- explore who participates, comparing outdoor activities across demographic groups.

④ One Country, Different Ways to Get Outside.

- Compare the states and territories with different environment and outdoor ~~activities~~ opportunities.
- geographic differences

⑤ Why do Australians Head Outdoors?

- ~~also~~ explore why people take part in physical and recreational activities

⑥ Australia's Wild Places

- Introduce Australia's national parks and compare visitation across major parks

⑦ ~~Forest a Thrive~~ Protected Outdoors

- explore how much of Australia's land is protected and where protected natural areas are concentrated.

⑧ Outdoor Economy

- ~~the~~ tourism expenditure and regional impact ~~the~~
- what economy activity is associated with nature/outdoor tourism?

⑨ More than Just Recreation

- outdoor culture also connects people through clubs, volunteering and community roles.

⑩ Conclusion

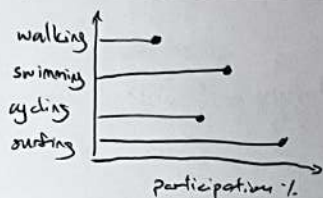

- Australia's outdoor lifestyle is shaped by both its people and landscape.
- important part of how Australians live, travel and connect.

The Great Australian Outdoors

How Australians explore, play and connect with nature.

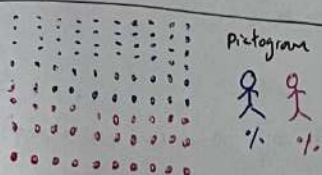

For Australians, the outdoors is

How Australia Gets Outdoors?

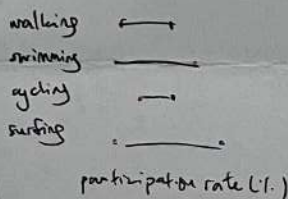

Who Gets Outdoors?

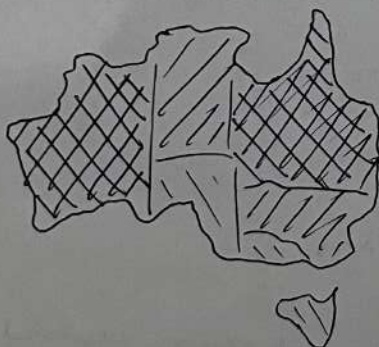

Age/Activity Heatmap

Dumbbell Chart
Compare male/female

One Country, Different Ways to Get Outside

choose an activity

Australia's Wild Places

Proportional Symbol Map

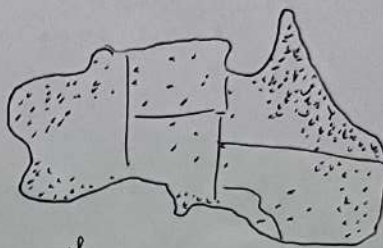

Low visitation
Medium visitation
High visitation

National Park Visitation

Wk A	Park B
	C D
E	F

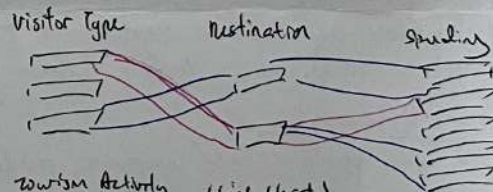

Australia's Protected Outdoors

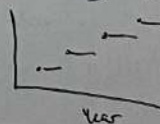

Australia is protected.

The Outdoor Economy

Sunkery:

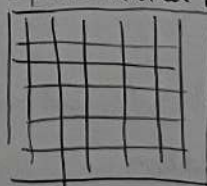

Tourism Activity (Line chart)

change in outdoor/nature-related tourism activity over time.

More Than Just Recreation

Proportion involved in non-playing roles

Mosaic: Types of Roles

Coach/Instructor	Official	...	Other
------------------	----------	-----	-------

Conclusion